High School Forensics Curriculum

Course Description: This is a general study of the techniques of interscholastic forensics and individual events. Students explore a variety of performance styles such as humorous and dramatic interpretation, duo improvisation, duo interpretation, poetry, prose, storytelling, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. Participation in the interscholastic Debate/Forensics program is a requirement. This course may be repeated for additional credit.

Unit 1: Introduction to Humorous and Dramatic Interpretation

Subject: Forensics
Grade: 9-12
Name of Unit: Humorous and Dramatic Interpretation
Length of Unit: 6 Weeks
Overview of Unit: The Students will learn Humorous Interpretation and/or Dramatic Interpretation to prepare them for speech tournaments.

Priority Standards for unit:
● 11-12.RL.1.D Using appropriate text, determine two or more themes in a text, analyze their development throughout the text, and relate the themes to human nature and the world; provide an objective and concise summary of the text.
● 9-12.PP.1.B. Utilize warm-up techniques for preparation of body, voice and mind
● 9-12.PP.1.B. Improvise using emotional and sensory recall
● 9-12.AP.1.B. Articulate, justify, and apply personal criteria for critiquing dramatic texts and performances
● 9-12.PP.1.F. Rehearse, polish, and present a performance for a class or invited audience

Supporting Standards for unit:
● 11-12.RI.2.A Evaluate how an author’s choices to structure specific parts of a text contribute to a text’s overall meaning and its aesthetic impact.
● 11-12.RI.2.B Analyze a text in which the author’s point of view is not obvious and requires distinguishing what is directly stated from what is implied.
  a. Organization and Content: Introduce the topic, maintain a clear focus throughout the text, and provide a conclusion that follows from the text. Achieve the writer’s purpose and enhance the reader’s understanding of and experience within the text by making choices regarding organization and content.
  b. Word Choice, syntax, and style: Choose precise language and make syntactical choices to reflect an understanding of how language functions in different contexts and enhance the reader’s understanding of the text.
  c. Conventions of standard English and usage: Demonstrate a command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage including spelling and punctuation.
  d. Use a variety of appropriate transitions to clarify relationships and connect ideas, claims, and signal time shifts.
e. Use technology, including the Internet, to product, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.

- 11-12.RI.1.A Draw conclusions, infer and analyze by citing relevant and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including where the text leaves matters uncertain.

- ISTE-EMPOWERED LEARNER.1: Students leverage technology to take an active role in choosing, achieving and demonstrating competency in their learning goals, informed by the learning sciences.

- ISTE-DIGITAL CITIZEN.2: Students recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and they act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical.

- TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Essential Questions:
1. How is Interpretation different than acting?
2. Why is it important to rehearse?
3. How is a performance structured?
4. How do publication standards impact what can be performed?
5. How is Humorous Interpretation different than Dramatic Interpretation?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:
1. Interpretation is a presentation that is devoid of costumes and props. It synthesizes a larger script rather than reading and memorizing directly from one provided. Interpretation also uses extensive pantomime to provide a sense of time and setting.
2. Rehearsal is an integral part of the process because it allows us to self-evaluate and improve on our performances. Students will be able to reflect on how they have improved from one rehearsal to the next.
3. Students will demonstrate an understanding that performances must be between eight and ten minutes with a thirty second grace period on either side. Students will also articulate how structurally a performance should be laid out (teaser, introduction, etc.). The students will create a teaser and introduction that reflects an understanding of that process.
4. Students will articulate that only published works that can be obtained in hard copy may be performed at tournaments.
5. Students will identify the different characteristics of comedy and drama, such as but not limited to, conflict, tension, farce, motivation and humor. The students will also create a cutting that fits within one of these paradigms.

Engaging Experience 1
Title: Structure of Humorous/Dramatic Interpretation
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed
Priority:
• 9-12.PP.1.B. Utilize warm-up techniques for preparation of body, voice and mind
• 9-12.PP.1.B. Improvise using emotional and sensory recall
• 9-12.AP.1.B. Articulate, justify, and apply personal criteria for critiquing dramatic texts and performances
Supporting:
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to
  and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.
Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will lead guided instruction of the structure of HI/DI including examples from last year’s National Speech and Debate National Tournament and in class performances from varsity members. After watching examples, the class will participate in a discussion facilitated by the teacher that aims to have students understand which interpretation they would prefer performing. The teacher will ultimately begin dividing students into HI and DI groups for the subsequent activities.

  active role in choosing, achieving and demonstrating competency in their learning goals, informed by the learning sciences.
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to
  and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.
Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will lead a discussion over good drama and comedy. The discussion will produce a list of qualities good performances include. Students will also isolate areas of controversy and “risky” moves or subject matter that should either be avoided or approached with caution. Students will then look for cuttings from the cutting file or will start their own cuttings.

Engaging Scenario (An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Final Performance in front of class. The class audience will evaluate each performance using MSHSAA event ballots. Audience members will give at least three positive and three constructive comments per performance. We refer to them as roses and thorns. Performers can then use completed rubric and roses and thorns to correct performances in preparation for competition at tournaments.

Essential Questions:
1. How is Duo Interpretation different than HI/DI?
2. Why is offstage focus important and how can students use it?
3. How can students find/cut and perform a duo interpretation cutting?
4. How can students properly block a duo interpretation script?
5. How does a duo interpretation teaser and introduction look?
6. How can students identify a supplementary event that will cater to their strengths and weaknesses?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:
1. Duo is different from other events in that it is not subdivided into funny or sad and involves two performers often playing more than one character.
2. Students will demonstrate through their performances that off stage focus includes an absence of eye contact a shared center focal point in the back of the room. They will also include blocking that signifies off stage focus as well.
3. Students will build off of the prior knowledge of HI/DI scripts to find a script that will function well at tournaments. They will also divide up the script in an even fashion giving equal (roughly) amounts of stage time to each performer. They will also divide out who will play each character.
4. Students will learn to adapt a written script to reflect individual movements. The students will also demonstrate proper pantomime in their interactions with one another (they must react to one another’s movements in a realistic fashion while maintaining off stage focus).
5. Students will create an introduction and teaser to properly summarize and prepare the audience for the overall performance.
6. Students will explore and understand the unique individual events that are offered at speech tournaments. They will then pick one of those events and prepare a performance based off of the guidelines of the event. It should also be noted that this unit can be repeated to allow the students to explore different events if time and students permit.

Title: Final Performance and Reflection
Suggested Length of Time: 5 Days
Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.RL.1.D Using appropriate text, determine two or more themes in a text, analyze their development throughout the text, and relate the themes to human nature and the world; provide an objective and concise summary of the text.
• 9-12.PP.1.B. Improvise using emotional and sensory recall
• 9-12.PP.1.F. Rehearse, polish, and present a performance for a class or invited audience

Supporting:
• Students understand human, cultural, and societal issues related to technology and practice legal and ethical behavior (ISTE 5 - Digital Citizenship).
  ○ Advocate and practice safe, legal, and responsible use of information and technology.
  ○ Exhibit a positive attitude toward using technology that supports collaboration, learning, and productivity.
  ○ Demonstrate personal responsibility for lifelong learning.
  ○ Exhibit leadership for digital citizenship.
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will perform in front of class an interpretation. The rest of class will critique the performance. Using classroom critiques as well as the rubric and score provided by the teacher the students will reflect on their own performances.

Title: Extemporaneous Speaking

Suggested Length of Time: 20 Days

Standards Addressed

Priority:

• 11-12.RL.1.D Using appropriate text, determine two or more themes in a text, analyze their development throughout the text, and relate the themes to human nature and the world; provide an objective and concise summary of the text.
• 9-12.PP.1.F. Rehearse, polish, and present a performance for a class or invited audience

Supporting:

• ISTE-EMPOWERED LEARNER.1: Students leverage technology to take an active role in choosing, achieving and demonstrating competency in their learning goals, informed by the learning sciences.
• ISTE-DIGITAL CITIZEN.2: Students recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and they act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical.
• ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will provide guided instruction of the format and time limits of Extemporaneous. The class will also examine the differences between Domestic and Foreign Extemporaneous. Finally, each student will be assigned a current event. They will research and present a multimedia presentation that reflects the history and current situation of that current event. This activity will culminate in a list of questions about the current event. Those questions will then act as the base for an Extemporaneous Speech that answers the questions in the tradition of either Domestic or Foreign Extemporaneous Speaking at tournaments.

Unit 3: Congressional Debate

Subject: Debate
Grade: 9-12
Name of Unit: Congressional Debate
Length of Unit: 4 Weeks
Overview of Unit: Students will learn to participate in Congressional debate to prepare themselves for tournament competition.

Priority Standards for unit:

- 11-12.W.2.A Follow a writing process to produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, style, and voice are appropriate to the task, purpose and audience; self-select and blend (when appropriate) previously learned narrative, expository, and argumentative writing techniques.
- 11-12.SL 1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.RL.1.D Using appropriate text, determine two or more themes in a text, analyze their development throughout the text, and relate the themes to human nature and the world; provide an objective and concise summary of the text.
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
- 9-12.PP.1.F Rehearse, polish, and present a performance for a class or invited audience

Supporting Standards for unit:

  a. Organization and Content: Introduce the topic, maintain a clear focus throughout the text, and provide a conclusion that follows from the text. Achieve the writer’s purpose and enhance the reader’s understanding of and experience within the text by making choices regarding organization and content.
  b. Word Choice, syntax, and style: Choose precise language and make syntactical choices to reflect an understanding of how language functions in different contexts and enhance the reader’s understanding of the text.
  c. Conventions of standard English and usage: Demonstrate a command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage including spelling and punctuation.
d. Use a variety of appropriate transitions to clarify relationships and connect ideas, claims, and signal time shifts.

e. Use technology, including the Internet, to product, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.

- 11-12.SL.1.C Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives, including those presented in diverse media; synthesize claims made on all sides of an issue, and, when warranted, qualify or justify their own views and understanding and make new connections in light of the evidence and reasoning presented.

- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge, ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.

Essential Questions:
1. How do we determine the difference between a resolution and a bill?
2. How does Congress function?
3. How do you construct a speech of affirmation or negation of a piece of legislation?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:
1. Students will understand that a bill may become law whereas a resolution is a recommendation for action.
2. Students will understand the differences between the House of Representation and the Senate. Furthermore, they will understand Congress functions under Roberts Rules of Order and Parliamentary Procedures.
3. Students will use the components of speech and support their position to persuade the body of congress to vote with them while using supporting materials.

Unit of Study Terminology

Assessment Leveling Guide: A tool to use when writing assessments in order to maintain the appropriate level of rigor that matches the standard.

Big Ideas/Enduring Understandings: Foundational understandings teachers want students to be able to discover and state in their own words by the end of the unit of study. These are answers to the essential questions.

Engaging Experience: Each topic is broken into a list of engaging experiences for students. These experiences are aligned to priority and supporting standards, thus stating what students should be able to do. An example of an engaging experience is provided in the description, but a teacher has the autonomy to substitute one of their own that aligns to the level of rigor stated in the standards.

Engaging Scenario: This is a culminating activity in which students are given a role, situation, challenge, audience, and a product or performance is specified. Each unit contains an example of an engaging scenario, but a teacher has the ability to substitute with the same intent in mind.

Essential Questions: Engaging, open-ended questions that teachers can use to engage students in the learning.

Priority Standards: What every student should know and be able to do. These were chosen because of their necessity for success in the next course, the state assessment, and life.

Supporting Standards: Additional standards that support the learning within the unit.

Topic: These are the main teaching points for the unit. Units can have anywhere from one topic to many, depending on the depth of the unit.

Unit of Study: Series of learning experiences/related assessments based on designated priority standards and related supporting standards.

Unit Vocabulary: Words students will encounter within the unit that are essential to understanding. Academic Cross-Curricular words (also called Tier 2 words) are those that can be found in multiple content areas, not just this one. Content/Domain Specific vocabulary words are those found specifically within the content.

Symbols:

- This symbol depicts an experience that can be used to assess a student’s 21st Century Skills using the rubric provided by the district.

- This symbol depicts an experience that integrates professional skills, the development of professional communication, and/or the use of professional mentorships in authentic classroom learning activities.
