Unit 1: Introduction to Speech

Subject: Speech
Grade: 12
Name of Unit: Introduction to Speech
Length of Unit: 3 Weeks
Overview of Unit: Students of Speech will gain a basic background knowledge of Public Speaking. They will begin to understand the different types of speeches and their purposes. Students will learn more about the communication process and begin to understand how we incorporate various nonverbal skills into our speeches. Students will also understand the steps of putting together a speech from start to performance.

Priority Standards for unit:

- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.A. Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting Standards for unit:

- 11-12.W.2.A Follow a writing process to produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, style, and voice are appropriate to the task, purpose and audience; self-select and blend (when appropriate) previously learned narrative, expository, and argumentative writing techniques.
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.
- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
- TT.AB.I.5: Students will recognize traits of the dominant culture, their home culture and other cultures and understand how they negotiate their own identity in multiple spaces.
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Engaging Experience 3
Title: Either/Or - Introduce each other
Suggested Length of Time: 2 Days

Standards Addressed

Priority:
• Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks. CCSS.ELA-SPEAKING&LISTENING.11-12.4

Supporting:
• Students apply digital tools to gather, evaluate, and use information (ISTE 3 - Research and Information Fluency).
  ○ Locate, organize, analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and ethically use information from a variety of sources and media.
  ○ Evaluate and select information sources and digital tools based on the appropriateness to specific tasks.
  ○ Process data and report results.

Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will present a series of options for the students and they will list these options on a sheet of paper. Do you like Coke or Pepsi? Students write down Pepsi, etc. After a number of options the students will take their sheet and partner up with another student in the class, preferably someone they have never met before. Students will use the sheet and answers on the sheet to begin conversations about each other. Students will get to know each other and create an introductory speech to present in front of the large group. Teacher may also have the students incorporate a multi-media resource to better present the individual they worked with.

Topic 2: Background

Engaging Experience 1
Title: History of Speech
Suggested Length of Time: 2 Days
Standards Addressed

Priority:
• 11-12.SL.2.A. Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting:
• ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will provide notes going over the background of public speaking. Terms that are associated with public speaking. Students will go home and find a YouTube video of some historical public speaking event. They will watch the video and give a written synopsis of the speech. Students should focus on speaker’s purpose (inform, persuade, etc.), setting, and what was the motivation or reasoning for the speech. Did the speaker accomplish his/her purpose? Students will post the link for the video to the LMS discussion board where they will also post their synopsis.

Bloom’s Levels: Create

Title: Seven Elements of Communication Process
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:
• 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.

Supporting:
• 11-12.W.2.A Follow a writing process to produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, style, and voice are appropriate to the task, purpose and audience; self-select and blend (when appropriate) previously learned narrative, expository, and argumentative writing techniques.
• ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Teacher goes over notes with the students covering the different elements of the communication process/ cycle. When the notes are completed, students will work in small groups to create a scenario in which communication occurs. They will identify the different parts of the communication process/cycle within their scenario. They will then create a dialogue for their individuals to have so that they can completely show the communication process/cycle in use. The teacher can consider incorporating technology into the discussion to extend the conversation beyond the classroom.

themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will take the listening survey to see where they rank as a listener. Teacher will lead a discussion on the various types of listening skills and types of listening. Teacher will lead a discussion on how listening is important to the communication process as well as a public speaking situation. Students will end the activity with a game of telephone. Information is given to the students and they are asked to pass it down the line.
Students are to work their listening skills to see if the information stays accurate throughout the process. Teacher can lead a discussion on what we saw within the game and discuss how information can change as it is passed from source to source.

Bloom’s Levels: Create, Understand
Webb’s DOK: 1, 2
Engaging Scenario (An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Students will compare and contrast to presidential speeches from the past. They will evaluate the speeches for key things. What style did the speaker use? What was the occasion of the speech? What was the purpose of the speech? How was the speech adjusted by the occasion? Talk about nonverbal techniques used. Students will view the videos and post to a discussion board their analysis of the two speakers or turn in a handwritten summary.

Subject: Speech
Grade: 12
Name of Unit: Research
Length of Unit: 2 Weeks

Overview of Unit: Students will learn about the importance of research and how it helps establish credibility for a public speaker. They will have a better understanding of how they can incorporate that research into their public speaking opportunities and how to properly cite that information both written and verbally. Students will learn how to collect data and put it into a usable format for their speeches.

Priority Standards for unit:

- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting Standards for unit:

- 11-12.SL.1.C Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives, including those presented in diverse media; synthesize claims made on all sides of an issue, and, when warranted, qualify or justify their own views and understanding and make new connections in light of the evidence and reasoning presented.
- ISTE-DIGITAL CITIZEN.2: Students recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and they act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical.
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.
Essential Questions:
1. How do Ethos and Logos affect your research process?
2. How do various types of research materials enhance public speaking?
3. Why do we need to use citations both in written and oral format in public speaking situations?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:
1. At the end of the course students will have a better understanding of reliable vs. unreliable sources as they pertain to various types of speeches. Students will also be able to use those resources to support their thesis statement.
2. At the end of the course students will be able to evaluate the validity and usefulness of research sources for timeliness, accuracy, relevance, credibility, bias, and propaganda for implementation in their presentations.
3. Students will be able to verbally cite sources within a speech. Students will be able to create works cited pages for the sources used within that speech.

Topic 1: Foundations

Engaging Experience 1
Title: Foundations - Ted Talk
Suggested Length of Time: 2 Days

Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting:
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Have the students view various example speeches from the TED Talks website and then identify and discuss ways in which speakers established their Ethos and Logos and how they showed Pathos. The teacher can choose to have students discuss their findings in small groups and present to class or as individuals.

Engaging Experience 2
Title: Foundations - Commercials/ Advertisement
Suggested Length of Time: 2 Days

Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting:
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students view various advertisements from past Super Bowls and various magazines to identify different ways in which Ethos, Pathos, and Logos are used in print ads and commercials. For example, the students watch the 9-11 Clydesdale commercial, ran during the super bowl, and identify the ways in which Ethos, Pathos, and Logos... were used even though the commercial did not have any words. Students will then identify a commercial they want to improve and describe how they would make it better.

Supporting:
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will think about what needs to be accomplished in an interview and create questions for said interview. Students will identify what is known, what needs to be known and use those resources to form the questions. Students will explore how interviews have changed, are changing and predict what they may look like in the future.

- ISTE-DIGITAL CITIZEN.2: Students recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and they act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students research topics and explore the various ways in which they can verbally cite their information to increase credibility with the audience. For example, students correctly introduce a source with the correct amount of information to make it credible. Students will begin to apply this information to some example openings of their speeches.

Engaging Scenario (An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Students will work with teacher given information to identify important facts/details from that information. Students will then take those facts/details and create example fact cards. They will also take the source information and create example source cards. The challenge to the students would be to identify what is important to a topic and what is not.

Unit 3: Informative

Subject: Speech
Grade: 12
Name of Unit: Informative Speech
Length of Unit: 4 Weeks
Overview of Unit: Students will gain a better understanding of an informative speech about an object, event, concept, or process. Students will gain a better understanding of research and how it can benefit your informative speech. Students will have a better understanding of how to create an outline and understand the various types of organizational patterns that can be used with the outline (spatial, topical, chronological, and cause and effect).

Priority Standards for unit:
- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting Standards for unit:
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
- ISTE - COMPUTATIONAL THINKER.5: Students develop and employ strategies for understanding and solving problems in ways that leverage the power of technological methods to develop and test solutions.
• ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.
• TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Essential Questions:

1. Why do we give informative speeches?
2. How does organization affect the outcome of an informative speech?
3. How do visual aids enhance a process speech?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:

1. At the end of the course students will be able to construct a non-biased speech thesis, support that thesis, and deliver a speech in a non-biased manner with the sole purpose being to give the audience information about their topic.
2. Students will be able to use a variety of organizational types to express their ideas to their audience to be a more effective speaker.
3. Students will give clear and concise multi-step oral directions to perform complex procedures and/or tasks through the use of visual aids.

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.

Supporting:
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
- TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students take out a notecard and identify 3 nouns and write them on the card. The cards are then collected by the teacher and passed out randomly. The students then have to write thesis statements for those terms for a type of informative speech. Example would be a process, event, object, or concept thesis statement for the words pig, car, and football. In today’s speech I will be showing you the basic fundamentals of playing the tight end position in football.

• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will view an informative speech from past courses. They will view the speech and discuss what makes the speech an informative process, topic, event, or concept. If no past examples are available, the videos should be pulled from internet sources. Students will be able to differentiate between the types of informative speeches and determine which approach is best suited for a specific informative topic. Teacher may elect for the students to watch the videos at home and come back to class prepared to discuss.

Topic 2: Organizational Methods

Engaging Experience 1
Title: Outlines
Suggested Length of Time: 4 Days
Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.

Supporting:
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students are to research their various topic for their informative speech. Once their research is complete they will begin the process of creating an outline for their speech. To give them experience in various types of organization they will create two different outlines for their topic. They will choose from the types of organizational patterns associated with Informative Topics. Spatial, Topical, Chronological, and Cause and Effect. The student will select the most effective outline and use it as a basis for an informative speech.

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting:
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Using previously created topic note cards, students will pick a topic card and develop a hypothetical topic and main points and apply various methods of organization. They will summarize and defend their choices for the hypothetical situation in front of the class. The teacher could have students create a multimedia project to better explain the activity. Example: Topic: pigs, Type of Information speech: object, Methods of organization: topical - 3 different types of pigs, chronological - lifecycle of a pig, spatial - different parts of the pig, etc.

Engaging Scenario

(An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Students will perform two Engaging Scenarios for this unit. The first will be an Informative Speech. The teacher has the option to use a visual aid with this speech. Students will research a topic. Students will create fact cards, and works cited information for their research. Once research is complete, students will use that research to create an outline and organizational pattern for their speech. Students will create a speech and practice the speech before performing the speech in front of the class.

The second scenario will be an Informative Speech about a process. Students will think of a skill that can be shown to the class. Students will prepare an outline listing out the chronological steps that go with the skill. Students will practice and perform the speech in front of the class. The speeches will vary between 5 - 10 minutes.

<td>Students will view a variety of how-to shows (cooking, DIY gardening, etc.) to explain and evaluate how the incorporation of visual aids impacts the message. For example, the students may watch a cooking show and acknowledge that a printed copy of the recipe would aid in retention as opposed to just viewing the steps. Students may work in small groups to discuss their findings.</td>

Unit 4: Persuasive

Subject: Speech
Grade: 12
Name of Unit: Persuasive
Length of Unit: 4 Weeks

Overview of Unit: Students will understand and be able to identify methods of persuasion in real-world contexts (speeches, advertising, etc.). Students will be able to apply persuasive techniques in their own persuasive speech for a specific audience.

Priority Standards for unit:

- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting Standards for unit:

- ISTE-EMPOWERED LEARNER.1: Students leverage technology to take an active role in choosing, achieving and demonstrating competency in their learning goals, informed by the learning sciences.
- ISTE-DIGITAL CITIZEN.2: Students recognize the rights, responsibilities and opportunities of living, learning and working in an interconnected digital world, and they act and model in ways that are safe, legal and ethical.
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
• ISTE - COMPUTATIONAL THINKER.5: Students develop and employ strategies for understanding and solving problems in ways that leverage the power of technological methods to develop and test solutions.

• ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.

• ISTE - GLOBAL COLLABORATOR.7: Students use digital tools to broaden their perspectives and enrich their learning by collaborating with others and working effectively in teams locally and globally.

• TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.

• TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

• TT.AB.D.6: Students will express comfort with people who are both similar to and different from them and engage respectfully with all people.

- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will identify a current event state, nationally, or worldly that has a call to action. The 1st day will require the students to research the current event to understand the problem. They will look at that problem and identify the facts of the situation that will thus prove there is a Need for a change. Students will be able to present their information to small and large group settings.

Title: Current Events Showing a Plan

Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day

Standards Addressed

Priority:

- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
• 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting:
• TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students have already spent time researching and identifying needs for a particular current event. This second activity will require them to identify a Plan for how to change and fix the Need that currently exists. Their plan should address the need without creating greater problems. Students should look at how the plan specifically addresses the need and whether or not it will cause more problems within the situation. An example may be that there are racial tensions on a college campus. They have already shown a Need for change, now they will come up with a reasonable plan to fix the situation.

• TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will work within their small groups for their third activity with current events to assess the practicalities of their plan they proposed. Students have shown a Need for a change, created a plan for that change, and now they will present their findings to a large group setting. This will be an opportunity to look and call into question the merits of the plan that is going to be put into place. Students will do a multimedia presentation or other visual aid program. This will allow the students to incorporate a visual aid into their public speaking. When the class evaluates the plan for each small group they may choose to use a plus/delta model to identify the positives and negatives of the plan.

Supporting:
- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will be working with Infomercials/Commercials to identify Ethos, Pathos, and Logos. The teacher may choose to show YouTube videos of real Infomercials or could also choose to use past student examples of infomercials. Before looking at the commercials for Ethos, Pathos, Logos, the teacher will lecture and give notes on the three elements of persuasion. Students will then take that information and apply it toward the infomercial they are viewing. How does the salesman or company establish/show Ethos (credibility) with their product? How does the salesman, company, or product establish/show Pathos (Emotion/Passion) for their product? How does the salesman, company, or product establish/show Logos (Logic) for their product or company?

- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.

- Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will take their knowledge of Ethos, Pathos, and Logos and use it to create their own infomercial. Individually, students will create a sales pitch for a product. They may choose to use an existing product in the field or create a new product, never before seen or used. In class or outside of class, students will work to create a 1 to 2-minute commercial selling their product. Students could also present the information in an informal speech to the class. Priority:
- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.

Supporting:
- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will use the ideas of Cognitive Dissonance to create a brief speech about an issue. Students will create doubt with the audience or consumer and give them a way to get rid of that doubt. For instance, we all feel safe in our town or city until we understand how much crime there is in the city. The idea that we are not safe anymore creates dissonance or doubt and we have to find a way to fix it and get back to that safe feeling. Here is where the persuasion comes in and the students will create a way to fix their problem. They will start with outlining this plan on a piece of paper and work up to creating a short 2-3-minute speech about what the problem is, why/ how it is affecting you and how to fix it.

Supporting:
• ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will discuss Audience Needs that can be used within persuasion. Students will view commercials and listen to speeches to identify the different audience needs addressed and how they were addressed within the speeches and/or commercials. This will allow the students to take a deeper look at how people are motivated to change. What drives someone to be persuaded and make changes?

- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.
- ISTE - GLOBAL COLLABORATOR.7: Students use digital tools to broaden their perspectives and enrich their learning by collaborating with others and working effectively in teams locally and globally.
Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will view a variety of commercials and identify the propaganda technique employed. After viewing the commercials, students will incorporate the think-pair-share strategy to share their findings. Students will then work in pairs and be given a propaganda type to find in other print or video commercials that were not viewed in class. In a multimedia presentation, students will then define the type of propaganda they explored and share the examples they found with the class.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will view a variety of historic as well as contemporary political speeches/debates during which they identify the line of reasoning employed by the speaker. After having shared and supported their findings in a whole-class discussion, students will work in small groups and develop their own line of reasoning to counter the arguments presented in the speeches and present those arguments in class. For example, students may view a speech by Donald Trump and identify his line of reasoning. Then, using their own line of reasoning, they will create arguments to counter his.

Engaging Scenario (An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Students will identify a topic, research that topic, and present a persuasive speech. Students will speak from 5-10 minutes about a certain topic. They will be able to identify if the topic is one of Fact, Value, or Policy. They will create a Thesis for that topic. They will identify three main points in support of the topic. They will create an outline and works cited page for the topic. They will incorporate verbal citations when presenting their information. Students will incorporate and focus on their Ethos, Pathos, and Logos while researching and presenting their information. Over the course of the speech, students should identify a Need, a Plan to fix that need, and be able to show the Practicality of that Plan.

The teacher may choose to show YouTube videos of real Infomercials or could also choose to use past student examples of infomercials. Before looking at the commercials for Ethos, Pathos, Logos, the teacher will lecture and give notes on the three elements of persuasion. Students will then take that information and apply it toward the infomercial they are viewing. How does the salesman or company establish/show Ethos (credibility) with their product? How does the salesman, company, or product establish/show Pathos (Emotion/Passion) for their product? How does the salesman, company, or product establish/show Logos (Logic) for their product or company?</td>

They may choose to use an existing product in the field or create a new product, never before seen or used. In class or outside of class, students will work to create a 1 to 2-minute commercial selling their product. Students could also present the information in an informal speech to the class. Students should focus on their Ethos, Pathos, and Logos in creating the commercial and selling the product.</td>

get rid of that doubt. For instance, we all feel safe in our town or city until we understand how much crime there is in the city. The idea that we are not safe anymore creates dissonance or doubt and we have to find a way to fix it and get back to that safe feeling. Here is where the persuasion comes in and the students will create a way to fix their problem. They will start with outlining this plan on a piece of paper and work up to creating a short 2-3-minute speech about what the problem is, why/how it is affecting you and how to fix it.

Unit 5: Group Communication

Subject: Speech
Grade: 12
Name of Unit: Group Communication
Length of Unit: 3 Weeks
Overview of Unit: Students will understand the importance, relevance, and significance of small group communication. They will apply theories and strategies of small group communication in their own small group project.

Priority Standards for unit:

- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.A Speak audibly, and to the point, using conventions of language as appropriate to task, purpose, and audience when presenting, including fluent and clear articulation, strategically varying volume, pitch, and pace to consistently engage listeners.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting Standards for unit:

- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.
- ISTE - INNOVATIVE DESIGNER.4: Students use a variety of technologies within a design process to identify and solve problems by creating new, useful or imaginative solutions.
- ISTE - COMPUTATIONAL THINKER.5: Students develop and employ strategies for understanding and solving problems in ways that leverage the power of technological methods to develop and test solutions.
- ISTE - CREATIVE COMMUNICATOR.6: Students communicate clearly and express themselves creatively for a variety of purposes using the platforms, tools, styles, formats and digital media appropriate to their goals.
- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

Essential Questions:
1. How does communication differ depending on subject, media, and feedback?
2. Why is it important to evaluate the messages of other speakers?
3. How does group communication function?

Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:
1. The students will participate in discussions and presentations, - create concise presentations on a variety of topics - incorporate appropriate media or technology - respond to feedback - defend ideas - demonstrate poise and self-control.
2. Students will be able to listen and evaluate their own and others' effectiveness in presentations and group discussions, using provided criteria - to evaluate the validity and reliability of speakers’ messages.
3. Students will be able to work in a variety of group settings identifying agendas, policies, and norms of the group. Students will create roles and maintain those roles in their group and will be able to better deal with conflict resolution within the group.

Engaging Experience 1
Title: 12 Angry Men
Suggested Length of Time: 3 Days
Standards Addressed:

Priority:

- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting:

- ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will view the movie “12 Angry Men.” They will then work as a group to identify the various types of leadership exemplified throughout the movie and, using a plus/delta chart, identify the effectiveness/ineffectiveness of each type of leadership. They will share their findings with the class.

Title: Kinds of Leadership
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:

- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.

Supporting:

- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.
Detailed Description/Instructions: The teacher will provide notes describing the four different kinds of small group leadership. Students will break up into small groups of their own and discuss the different kinds of leadership and use a plus/delta model for identifying the positives and possible drawbacks to each kind of leadership. Students will then look at specific situations that they have been in themselves and identify the types of leadership displayed in their situation and the positives or negatives that resulted in that type of leadership.

Title: Lost on the Moon
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.

Supporting:
- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Student will individually complete the NASA “Lost on the Moon” worksheet which asks them to rank a list of items based on importance if they were lost on the moon. After completing the worksheet individually, they will meet in a random small group, discuss their answers and then come to a consensus ranking of the items. Students will then be given the “correct” answers and justifications based on the NASA activity.

Title: Have a Heart
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:
- 11-12.SL.1.A Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.
- 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.
- 11-12.SL.2.C Plan and deliver appropriate presentations based on the task, audience, and purpose, making strategic use of multimedia in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest in conveying a clear and distinct perspective.

Supporting:

- TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.
- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will begin the process of working in a group by participating in this activity. Students will divide up into small groups of 3-4 students. They will be presented with information about six possible candidates for a heart replacement. Before they meet the possible candidates, they will identify the wants and desires of the group. What are the important details in making this decision? What will be there criteria in making this decision? How will they determine a final decision for their group? Groups should also set a short agenda on what they want to do first, second, third, etc. Groups will then meet the candidates and begin to evaluate each candidate based on the criteria they deemed to be important in the decision making process. The Maintenance of the need will be very important in this setting as all members need to be heard and have their opinions valued. After each member has had an opportunity to speak, groups will determine who the heart will go to and why. Be able to present their reasoning and selection to the rest of the class at the end of the block.

- TT.AB.I.4: Students will express pride, confidence and healthy self-esteem without denying the value and dignity of other people.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students will fill out note cards and write topics/questions of discussion for the class. The topics can be controversial in nature and will provide the rest of the class with the opportunity to agree or disagree with that topic/question. The teacher will read the question/topic out loud and students will move to one of the four corners of the room; Agree, Disagree, Strongly Agree, Strongly Disagree. From this point students will be able to discuss what their agreements and disagreements as well as why they feel the way they do. This will allow for an open discussion and peaceful argumentation among the group.

Essential Questions:
1. Why is being able to speak extemporaneously an important skill?
2. Why do students need to be able to write a ceremonial speech?
3. How can a student incorporate acting skills into their presentations?
Enduring Understanding/Big Ideas:

1. At the end of the course students will be able to deliver a speech extemporaneously. Students will be able to create and deliver a speech over various, random topics, with little or no preparation time. Students will be able to use skills of creating a thesis, main points, outline for the purpose of this extemporaneous speech.

2. At the end of the course students will be able to construct a speech for a Ceremonial type of event. They will be able to write various speeches for various celebratory situations.

3. At the end of the course students will be able to combine acting with reading as they interpret another's published piece of writing. They will be able to show a wide variety of emotions while speaking, understanding how their non-verbal techniques contribute to the overall speech experience.

Topic 2: Purpose

Engaging Experience 1
Title: Listening Skill for Audience
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:

• 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.

Supporting:

• TT.AB.I.3: Students will recognize that peoples’ multiple identities interact and create unique and complex individuals.

Detailed Description/Instructions: Students are presented information on the types of listening that we may use in our everyday life. They then take a survey on what type of listener they are - great, good, average, or poor. Students will then be given a sentence to read over; they will be asked to pass the information on to another member of their group and then on down the line in succession of 4-5 people. By the time the information gets to the end of the line we look at how much of the information is retained. Students will see what type of listener they are and also look at what kind of information is being passed along. Is it easier to remember things when we are listening for comprehension or listening for appreciation etc.?

Engaging Experience 2
Title: Analyzing Purpose of Special Occasion Speeches
Suggested Length of Time: 1 Day
Standards Addressed

Priority:

• 11-12.SL.1.B Delineate a speaker’s argument and claims, evaluating the speaker’s point of view, reasoning, stance, and evidence in order to propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.

Supporting:
• ISTE - KNOWLEDGE COLLECTOR.3: Students critically curate a variety of resources using digital tools to construct knowledge, produce creative artifacts and make meaningful learning experiences for themselves and others.

Detailed Description/Instruction: Students view a variety of special occasion speeches such as Oprah’s Bob Hope Humanitarian Award acceptance speech, President Bush’s 9/11/01 announcement, and various commencement speeches and identify how those speeches fit the needs of the occasion. For example, how does the specific speech meet the expectations of audience, content, speaker and audience? Students will also brainstorm ways to improve the speech to enhance their message.

Engaging Scenario (An Engaging Scenario is a culminating activity that includes the following components: situation, challenge, specific roles, audience, product or performance.)

Impromptu Speeches. Students arrive to class the day of the speech not knowing that they will be giving a speech that day. This would simulate arriving at work and having your boss ask you to prepare to give a presentation to some out of town clients. The students will be given topics that are not research based topics. General topics such as “The grass isn’t always greener on the other side.” Students will then need to create a thesis statement and 2 to 3 main points for that thesis. Students will then be given a 10-15-minute window to go and create their speech. They will then return to the class and present their speech. Students will need to incorporate the basic concepts of a speech such as intro, body, and conclusion. Emphasis will be on creating a presentation in a short amount of time.

Unit of Study Terminology

Appendices: All Appendices and supporting material can be found in this course’s shell course in the District’s Learning Management System.

Assessment Leveling Guide: A tool to use when writing assessments in order to maintain the appropriate level of rigor that matches the standard.

Big Ideas/Enduring Understandings: Foundational understandings teachers want students to be able to discover and state in their own words by the end of the unit of study. These are answers to the essential questions.

Engaging Experience: Each topic is broken into a list of engaging experiences for students. These experiences are aligned to priority and supporting standards, thus stating what students should be able to do. An example of an engaging experience is provided in the description, but a teacher has the autonomy to substitute one of their own that aligns to the level of rigor stated in the standards.

Engaging Scenario: This is a culminating activity in which students are given a role, situation, challenge, audience, and a product or performance is specified. Each unit contains an example of an engaging scenario, but a teacher has the ability to substitute with the same intent in mind.

Essential Questions: Engaging, open-ended questions that teachers can use to engage students in the learning.

Priority Standards: What every student should know and be able to do. These were chosen because of their necessity for success in the next course, the state assessment, and life.

Supporting Standards: Additional standards that support the learning within the unit.

Topic: These are the main teaching points for the unit. Units can have anywhere from one topic to many, depending on the depth of the unit.

Unit of Study: Series of learning experiences/related assessments based on designated priority standards and related supporting standards.

Unit Vocabulary: Words students will encounter within the unit that are essential to understanding. Academic Cross-Curricular words (also called Tier 2 words) are those that can be found in multiple content areas, not just this one. Content/Domain Specific vocabulary words are those found specifically within the content.

Symbols:

This symbol depicts an experience that can be used to assess a student’s 21st Century Skills using the rubric provided by the district.

This symbol depicts an experience that integrates professional skills, the development of professional communication, and/or the use of professional mentorships in authentic classroom learning activities.
